

International Dispute Resolution

WHAT SETS US APART

Transnational Legal Skill Applied to Client Objectives. Our team of international dispute resolution attorneys brings a deep bench of experience spanning every major international dispute resolution forum. By accessing the firm's national and international resources and working as cross-disciplinary teams, we offer advice and guidance and manage and resolve complex disputes pending in multiple jurisdictions and states and we do so in a seamless manner. Our international dispute resolution attorneys draw on experience from skilled attorneys throughout the firm to develop the right solutions for clients facing complex transactional issues and disputes matters.

Commitment to Excellence and Responsiveness. We leverage technology and relationships, we implement lean techniques, and we bring a sense of urgency to transnational matters that sets us apart from other law firms. We attack client issues head-on to minimize delays and costs and explore opportunities for resolution and continued business viability through alternative remedies. We collaborate with our clients to develop a scope and definition of the work we do, which results in shared expectations, transparency, and predictability.

Our Clients. Building upon our top-ranked construction, product liability, intellectual property, international organizations, trade secrets, employment, international corporate, and complex commercial practices, Seyfarth's international dispute resolution group represents clients across the globe in transnational disputes. Our long-term representation of clients with transnational operations for whom we assert and defend claims arising from their activities and business-lines in numerous jurisdictions around the world affords us the knowledge and expertise to tackle emerging issues and keep up with our clients' changing business needs effectively and efficiently.

Innovative Delivery. A commitment to client service forms the foundation of our work. To facilitate this, we conduct regular review meetings with clients to discuss current issues and needs as identified by the client. Our team members collaborate with clients to evaluate and update documents and processes, streamlining where appropriate to address security and enforcement issues, and to achieve efficiencies. For clients who desire it, we provide a web-based method for tracking the progress of matters through Seyfarth Link, our proprietary collaboration platform.

Industry Engagement. Our attorneys regularly speak and publish on current developments in international law, focusing on international organizations and foreign states, construction and commercial international arbitration, ADR and cross-border litigation. We offer practice guidance to multilateral organizations, governments, and businesses involved in international transactions and trade agreements. Our team of attorneys advises on all manner of alternative dispute resolution methods such as mediation, project neutrals, and dispute review boards. We represent clients in arbitral tribunals formed under a broad range of institutions, such as the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), International Centre for Dispute Resolution (ICDR), London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC), Hong Kong International Arbitration Center (HKIAC), United Nations Commission on International Trade Law Rules (UNCITRAL), and the International Trade Commission (ITC).

We represent clients in court proceedings on the merits of disputes, to compel or resist arbitration, to enforce arbitral awards, and to recognize and enforce foreign country money judgments. Our attorneys also have significant experience in using mediation as a way of resolving cross-border disputes. Many of our attorneys serve as arbitrators and mediators and are fluent in numerous languages. Seyfarth also is a founding member of the Atlanta International Arbitration Society (ATLAS).

Seyfarth is a proud signatory of the Equal Representation in Arbitration Pledge. This Pledge seeks to increase, on an equal opportunity basis, the number of women appointed as arbitrators in order to achieve a fair representation as soon as practically possible, with the ultimate goal of full parity.

We leverage our collective strength around the world to drive meaningful results for clients.
